Provide Basic Emergency Life Support HLTAID010

Course Outline

This entry-level course is designed for people who want to learn the key elements of first aid. It will arm you with the life saving skills that you need to perform in an emergency situation in those vital minutes before the ambulance arrives.

This course is aimed at students who are required to achieve only a basic level of first aid training as part of their job, or who would like to learn basic first aid without the need to complete the more intensive first aid program.

This training is suitable for any person 14 years and above; students under 18 years of age must provide written permission from their parent or guardian.

Course Subjects

- Assess an emergency situation and calling for assistance
- Legal issues and infection control
- DRSABCD action plan
- CPR
- Bleeding, wounds and shock
- Medical conditions: chest pain, asthma, choking and anaphylaxis

Course Delivery & Duration

Classes commence at 8:30am and finish at 4:00pm. All students are required to be present 15 minutes before course commencement time. Late arrivals may be refused from the course as a failure to attend.

Training occurs at Eagle Training Services training facilities located in Darwin & Alice Springs. Participants undertake the course in comfortable, air-conditioned classrooms with the latest IT and audiovisual capabilities. Students are supported through the provision of high quality learning materials and resources.
